WHPK

Now at 100 watts and its new frequency, 88.5, WHPK better serves the South Side and surrounding areas with the best in alternative programming. WHPK is Chicago's only true multi-format radio station. Whatever your taste in music, you're likely to find it at 88.5 FM.

Examples of summer programming on WHPK include:

MONDAY, 9 pm to Midnight--"The Evil Show" with Dave Waldman. Three hours of blues, covering all phases, from the late 1920s on, with special emphasis on Chicago Blues of the '50s.

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY, 6 to 9 pm--Folk. Fun and fine music are the rule as Jim DeWan, Laura Gloger, and Cliff Landis bring you folk music. Bluegrass, Old-Time, British Isles, Western Swing, and Country & Western are featured, as are many contemporary folk artists from the United States and around the world.

TUESDAY Night, Midnight to 3 am--"Free Form in the A.M." with Jeff Brill. Three hours of interesting music from all formats, stressing experimentalism.

WEDNESDAY, Noon to 6 pm--Classical. Tune in every Wednesday at noon, as James Ginsburg presents a 20th Century opera. At 3, Richard Vlcek is your host for "Music to Remember." The show often spotlights music from specific periods and regions, and features interviews with local music figures.

WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY Nights, Midnight to 3 am--Ken Wissoker mixes the best in rap music.

THURSDAY, 5 to 5:30 pm--"The Poetry and Fiction Reading Show." Heard on selected Thursdays, the program features works read by the authors. Submissions are welcome, and should be addressed to:

WHPK-FM (ATTN: Program Director)
5706 S. University Ave.
Chicago, IL 60637

THURSDAY, 5:30 to 6 pm--"Women's Voices." Presented by members of the University of Chicago Women's Union, the latest addition to the WHPK Public Affairs lineup includes discussions of women's issues and presents women's music.

THURSDAY, 9 pm to Midnight--"Test Tube Radio" with Leo Krumpholz, a jazz-based avant-garde program with frequent explorations into the world of modern electronic music.

FRIDAY, 6 am to SATURDAY, 6 am--24 hours of WHPK Rock and Roll. Listen for record giveaways between 9 and midnight.

SATURDAY, Noon to 6 pm--"Radio Babylon" with Art Bailey and Bill Finley. The show spans the reggae spectrum and often includes live guests and giveaways.

SATURDAY/SUNDAY, 6 pm to 6 pm--R&B. Hear your favorite dusties, newer selections, and dance during WHPK's commercial-free weekend of R&B.

This Fall, WHPK will return to its normal 24-hour schedule, and will resume regular Public Affairs broadcasting.

WHPK wishes to thank the K.A.M. Isaiah Israel Synagogue for its generous support. WHPK would also like to extend a hearty thanks to the many people who contributed during the 100 Watt Radiothon. Listener support of this type enables us to provide the best alternative radio on the South Side. If you enjoy listening to WHPK and would like to help us on our way at 100 watts, you should join WHPK's sponsorship campaign. If you or your business would like to sponsor a program on WHPK, call 962-8289 from 12 to 5 pm Monday through Friday for more information.

Yes, I would like to help support the South Side's radio station.
